MULTILINGUAL DISCOVERY SUPPORT

IQWEST provides several forms of foreign language translation support to law firms and corporate legal departments.

With a focus on cost management and a combination of machine language translation (MLT), "GISTING" (a few lines per page synthesizing page content), Certified Human Translation, Coding, On-Line Search/Review in MOST languages, and Project Management, IQWEST covers all the bases.

IQWEST gives litigators the winning advantage in any matter involving foreign languages using:

- EDD for almost any language and format
- Machine Language Translation to shrink time and cost
- Certified Human Translation
